Arlington, VA – December 21, 2006 – Today, Governor Jennifer Granholm (D) signed into law Uniform Video Services Local Franchise Act (HB 6456).

“By signing this bill, Governor Granholm has made video competition a reality for Michigan residents. We applaud the Governor’s support of this bill, which will bring real choice and savings to consumers across the state.

“This is a big win for cable customers in Michigan. This legislation will bring real competition to the cable industry, which means consumers will see savings on their bills and enjoy improved customer service.”
